Detailed Report of Incident

October 14, 2015, my son Coby Evan Iwaasa committed to go on a 2 year mission for his church – The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Almost immediately following Coby's announcement, we as a family began receiving multiple (sometime 3-4 emails a day) anti-Mormonism emails from Mr. Brooks. We ignored those emails since they were directed to us and did not affect anyone else outside our family.

On November 6, 2015, Mr. Brooks posted a message on the Alberta Racquetball Association Facebook (post attached). I find this post about my religion offensive, degrading, insulting, humiliating, hurtful, demeaning and unwelcome (as per the definition of harassment in the Racquetball Canada Harassment Policy and Guidelines – see attached).

Mr. Brooks was posting these similar anti-Mormon messages on Coby's Fan Page Facebook which ultimately resulted in the administrator blocking him and threatening to take legal action against him if he does not cease to post defamatory messages.

Coby is a vulnerable individual at this time. He does not have access to Facebook and is unaware of the damaging comments Mr. Brooks is making about his religion. Therefore, I as his mother must protect his integrity and reputation.

Mr. Brooks may not intend to be malicious; however, that is not the issue. The point I am trying to make is how it is affecting us as a family.

Troy Brooks I am a Christian, born-again January 2001 at the age of 33. My prayer is this video (the best I have seen to help Mormons) will help lead the Iwaasa family out of Mormonism and to repent and rebuke the liar and deceiver Joseph Smith to receive Jesus Christ to be born-again and become a brother and sister in Christ. Amen.
